Blessed Edmund Rice

Blessed Edmund Ignatius Rice, CFC (1 June 1762 – 29 August 1844), was a Roman Catholic missionary and educationalist. Edmund is the founder of two religious institutes of religious brothers: the Congregation of Christian Brothers and the Presentation Brothers.

Edmund was born in Callan, Ireland. He was born at a time when Catholics faced oppression under Penal Laws enforced by the British authorities, though reforms began in 1778 when he was a teenager. He was an unsuccessful businessman and, after a tragic accident which killed his wife and left his daughter disabled and with learning difficulties, thereafter devoted his life to education of the poor.

Christian Brothers and Presentation Brothers schools around the world continue to follow the traditions established by Edmund Rice

In February 1838, Edmund Rice left the North Richmond Street community and returned to Mount Sion in Waterford. Aged seventy-six, and by now in poor health, he wrote to the different communities calling for a General Chapter to elect a new Superior General. After living in a near comatose state for more than two years, Edmund died at 11 a.m. on 29 August 1844 at Mount Sion, Waterford.

“One thing you may be sure of, that while you work for God, whether you succeed or not he will amply reward you”

THE CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF ARUSHA EDMUND RICE SINON SECONDARY SCHOOL

Edmund Rice Sinon Secondary School is a private Catholic school for young men and women in the Catholic Archdiocese of Arusha and is managed by the Congregation of Christian Brothers, for the Archdiocese. It was founded in 1988 in two classrooms in the neighbouring Engosengiu Primary school. The school was known as Purka Secondary School. In 1991 it moved across the road to the present site. The school is comprised of O-level and A-level for both Boarding and Day scholars. The school now has 1,500 students who are spread across Form One to Six and come from various religious denominations. Of these students, about 1,300 are full time boarders while another 200 are day students coming to school in the morning and going home in the evening.

Vision

“Holistic formation of young people inspired by the values of the Gospel”

Mission

“Through effective teaching and learning we develop spiritual, moral, academic, physiological, physical and social skills enabling all to be fully integrated, generous and peace-loving members of the community in the tradition of Blessed Edmund Rice”

O - level
